This article will correctly and carefully deal with the United Nations leaders since it started. The illegitimate United Nations is the successor of the League of Nations, a Jewish creation. Dr. Klee, of New York, in a speech January 19th, 1936 stated:

"The League of Nations was in no sense the work of President Wilson. It is essentially a Jewish creation of which we Jews may be proud. The idea thereof goes back to the Wise Men of Israel. It is a product of pure Jewish culture."

Lucien Wolf, in his official report to the American Jewish Congress, as Jewish plenipotentiary to the Peace Congress, stated:

"If the League of Nations would collapse, the structure so laboriously built by the Jewish delegation of England and the United States in 1919 would also collapse."

At the start, U. N. Secretary Trygve Lie was picked by Stalin and forced into office by Andre Gromyko, Chief U. N. Soviet delegate, who used strong threats on the United Nations' delegates. Lie held office from 1946 to 1953. Trotsky, ex Jew Communist leader of Soviet Union, himself one of the leaders of the Comintern, stated in his work "Stalin and His Crimes" that Lie was a member of the Comintern. In fact Trotsky devotes a whole chapter to the subversive activities of Comrade Lie.

As soon as Lie took office he appointed Arkady Sobelev as his assistant Secretary-General. He appointed Dr. Ivan Kerns, a communist from Czechoslovakia, as Secretary-General for legal affairs; Henri Langier, another communist, as Attorney General for legal affairs. Lie also employed Gubitchev, the Soviet spy.

This condition has not changed to date. The U. N. is packed with communists. It is a nest of spies enjoying diplomatic immunity—they can park their cars in front of a fire hydrant or run you over and kill you, and cannot be arrested.

Every time Lie was asked if he was a communist, his reply was that he was an officer in the Norwegian Labor Party, but failed to state that party was part of Lenin's Third International. Lie spent years in Moscow working with Stalin.

Space will not permit us to give Lie's complete communist record, but it is plain the first Secretary-General of the United Nations was a top communist.

Lie's daughter married William Zeckendorf, Jr. He and his father are the Jew real estate tycoons who own downtown property in forty states.

Dag Hammarskjold, next Secretary-General, deceived many people. He had to be tied up with communism judging from only one of his activities.

Paul Bang Jensen, a top member of the United Nations, took testimony in Vienna from 81 Hungarians who escaped from

U. Thant, Secretary General of U.N.

Hungary during the 1956 revolution, several of whom were communists. Because their relatives in Hungary would be killed if the names became known, Jensen pledged he would not reveal their names. Hammarskjold demanded the names. Jensen knew Hammarskjold was the center of a communist nest and refused. Hammarskjold fired him. Jensen then exposed the United Nations as run by communists. Jensen was to testify before the United States Senate Internal Security Committee when communist agents kidnapped Jensen, held him for three days, and left him dead in the woods in New York.

Bo Gustav Hammarskjold, brother of Dag, is president of a group of men from several countries who put up one hundred million dollars in a Swiss bank to take over the mines in Katanga. At this time, Dag was killed in an airplane crash while a desperate effort was being made to crush Katanga so his brother could grab the most valuable mines in the world. Dag, no doubt, was a crook.

In Bo Gustav Hammarskjold's corporation, Sture Linner, Chief of Civil Operations for the U. N. in the Congo, controlled U. N. policy regarding Katanga. Fowler Hamilton, our United States foreign aid chief was also a member, and he turned foreign aid money over to the U. N. for war on Katanga. Under Secretary, George Ball, was also involved up to his neck. The State Dept. is hellbent to break down Katanga using our taxpayer's money.

Now we come to U. Thant, that Burma red who is here in the United States directing the spending of our taxpayer's money, attacking Katanga to force them under communism which the Congo set up.

It is hard to believe we live in a time when a man from Burma can use our money, soldiers, bombers and jet fighters to murder people in Katanga, and the television, which cooperates with this world government outfit, states that it was "self defense."

Kennedy was asked by the State Department who controls him in foreign activities to send more help for the U. N. in the Congo.

Kennedy (or his advisors), to be in the clear with the gullible public, sent Lt. Gen. Louis Truman as head of a military mission to the Congo to investigate and report to Kennedy.

First, General Truman was sent to U Thant in New York City where Thant and the communist-identified Ralph Bunche instructed Truman as to the report he was to bring back. Truman knew then what he was going to do, for he took along 35 advisors and technicians which he left to help crush Katanga. Truman stayed one day in the Congo then returned, advising Kennedy to send trucks, 20 2½-ton trucks, three transport planes and much other equipment, for the bloody aggression under a communist, E. D. Kiselev, U.S.S.R. in the U. N. This had to be rushed through before Congress was to meet on January 9th.

Thant says he worked out a peaceful settlement between Indonesia and the Dutch. In cooperation with the State Dept., the United Nations pulled the same stunt it has done many times before. It forced the Dutch to give up New Guinea to Sukarno, the communist head of Indonesia.

As soon as Thant was elected Secretary-General, he appointed Eugeny Kiselev, communist of the U.S.S.R., and Ralph Bunche, a negro who has been identified in sworn testimony by two former communists as having attended many communist meetings with them. These two were appointed as close assistants to U. Thant. Thant is very strong for accepting red China as a member of the United Nations. Thant says the U. N. will grow stronger and stronger until it becomes a super-state or world government.

Before coming to the U. N., Thant was publicity director for the left red organization "Peoples Freedom League" in Burma.

The United Nations' charter states the U. N. is not to interfere in any nation and here we have a situation where 20,000 troops from different countries, with the latest weapons, attack Katanga who wants to be independent and separate. Seven of the Irish troops were eaten by the Congolese. Several hundred members of the Congo government, most of whom cannot read or write, are drawing $30,000 a year, which is more than our Congressmen get, and this
